Branding

Designed a new logo for Trombly's Tackle Box including colours the follow through branding. Was important to highlight that the company is not just a hunting story but also camping and paintball supplies. On the side of the website there are contests and highlighted catch of the month to show that their customers are important to them.

Branding

Utilizing information from Chip + Malt's website and logo, created a double page spread to highlight what the company stands for and a mural that I painted in the restaurant. Designed a menu that is front and back using items that they sell in the restaurant and highlighting important elements with boxes.
